Chapter 26
Student

Contents: Paul's defense before Agrippa.

Characters: GOD, JESUS, Paul, Agrippa, Satan, Festus, Bernice, Caesar.

Conclusion: When GOD's servant is given a chance to speak for himself, it is well if he speaks for the Gospel concerning CHRIST instead. He should not be ashamed of the Gospel of CHRIST in any situation. Even though we are answered with scorn and contempt, it is certain that GOD will in some way use our testimony for HIS glory.

Strong Verses: 8, 18, 28, 29.

Striking Facts: 23. There are three great Gospel fundamentals that Paul continually emphasized:

1. That JESUS CHRIST was appointed to suffering and the cross.
2. That HE should be the chief of the resurrection, making way for the resurrection of the saints.
3. That HE arose to show a light to those in darkness, and by the power of HIS resurrection to give convincing proof of the truth of HIS doctrine.
