

Genesis
Chapter 29
Student

Contents: Jacob and Laban, two bargain makers, meet.

Characters: Jacob, Laban, Rachael, Leah, Reuben, Levi, Judah.

Conclusion: The believer who has erred may not be forsaken of GOD, but he is permitted to reap the shame and sorrow of his self-chosen way. Matthew 7:2.

Key Word: Beguiled, 25.

Strong Verses: 20.

Striking Facts: Jacob at Haran, pictures the nation descended from him at the present time. He was away from the place of blessing, without an altar, but yet under the covenant care of JEHOVAH and eventually to be brought back.

Questions:

1. Which New Testament does verse 25 remind you of?
2. What did Laban do to Jacob?
3. How many daughters did Laban have?
4. How was Rachel related to Jacob?
5. How many wives did Jacob have?
6. Which wife did Jacob love more?
7. How many children did Leah have?

Discussion:

1. What do you think about verse 11, if it happened today?
2. Why did GOD allow Rachel to be barren?
3. How did GOD elevate the “unloved” Leah?
