

Romans
Chapter 15
Student

Contents: Jewish and Gentile believers are under one and the same salvation. Paul speaks of his ministry and coming journey.

Characters: GOD, JESUS, HOLY SPIRIT, Paul, Isaiah.

Conclusion: The self-denial of our LORD JESUS CHRIST is the best argument against the selfishness of Christians. We should not seek our own credit, ease, safety or pleasure, but should give ourselves as HE did, by bearing the infirmities of the weak, whether they are Jew or Gentile, agreeable or disagreeable, and striving to be likeminded in the Gospel to the glory of GOD.

Key Word: Gospel unity, 5.

Strong Verses: 1, 4, 13.

Striking Facts: 5. “According to CHRIST JESUS.” Let CHRIST JESUS be the center of our unity. If we are in tune with Him, then and ONLY THEN will we surely be in tune with each other, and we shall agree in truth rather than in error.

Questions:

1. Where did verses 9-12 originate in the Old Testament? Psalms 18:49; 2 Samuel 23:1; Psalms 18:43; Isaiah 55:4; Psalms 18:32
2. What is the behavior of the “strong”
3. How should we glorify GOD?
4. Why should we not seek to please ourselves?
5. Who should you depend on to correct you when you are outside of GOD’s will?
6. For what two things did Paul as for in prayer?
