

Acts
Chapter 8
Student

Contents: Saul's persecution of the "Followers of THE WAY" [Christians] [See Acts 11:26]. The first missionaries. The cases of Simon, the sorcerer, Philip and the Ethiopian.

Characters: GOD, CHRIST, HOLY SPRIT, Saul, Stephen, Philip, Simon, apostles, peter John, angels, Ethiopian, Isaiah.

Conclusion: Where JESUS CHRIST is preached and the Gospel is embraced, satan is forced to eliminate his hold of men, who are then restored to their right mind. When we are blinded by Satan, he leads to us being distracted and dissatisfied. The bringing of CHRIST's gospel to any place or individual is a matter of great joy to that place or person.

Key Word: Preaching CHRIST, 4, 5, 12, 25, 35, 40.

Strong Verses: 4, 20, 37.

Striking Facts: 37. A short, but comprehensive confession of faith. The deity of JESUS CHRIST is the principal doctrine of Christianity, and those who believe it with all their hearts and confess it are to be baptized—and only those.

Questions:

1. Who baptized the eunuch? What happened after?
2. Why did Peter and John go to Samaria?
