

Exodus

Chapter 18

Student

Contents: Moses is joined by his wife and children. Judges are selected to help Moses judge community disputes.

Characters: GOD, Moses, Aaron, Jethro, Zipporah, Gershom, Eliezer.

Conclusion: We should enjoy telling others of the many blessings given to us by GOD. Therefore, we should give GOD praise. In so doing we increase our faith and encourage others to accept and praise GOD themselves.

Key Word: Told, 8 (testimony).

Strong Verses: 8, 9, 10.

Striking Facts: It will be noticed (Numbers 11:14-17) that GOD replaces Jethro's wise counsel and his man-made organization, putting in its place, HIS own order (18). We are not called to service on the ground of our ability, but CHRIST's ability. Philippians 4:13.

Questions:

1. How many children did Moses have? What were their names?
2. Why did Moses have to bring his family back to him? Hint: See previous chapters.
3. What was the name of Moses' father-in-law?
4. What problem was Moses having?
5. What was his solution?

Discussion: Why didn't Moses advise the people to develop a relationship with GOD, instead of using Moses as an intermediary?
