

Leviticus
Chapter 11
Instructor

“The Dietary Law”

Contents: The proper food for GOD's people defined.

Characters: GOD, Moses.

Conclusion: The body is the LORD's and it is sin against GOD to prejudice health for the pleasing of appetite.

Key Word: Eating, Lev_11:2.

Strong Verses: Lev_11:45.

Striking Facts: GOD's covenant people, Israel, by having a diet peculiar to themselves would be kept from familiar conversation with idolatrous neighbors. The laws, however, were probably primarily sanitary and necessary to the good of the people.

Questions:

1. What is the description of a land animal that is ceremonially clean enough to eat?

2. What must be done, if you are ceremonially unclean?

3. What was the justification for this behavior?

Discussion Question: Are these requirements necessary today? Why/Why not?
