

Numbers

Chapter 15

Student

Contents: Burnt and free will offerings.

Characters: GOD, Moses, man who broke Sabbath.

Conclusion: Sins committed ignorantly must have atonement made for them, for although GOD is very merciful with the ignorant, their ignorance cannot justify them. The presumptuous sinner invites severe judgments.

Key Word: Offerings, 3.

Strong Verses: 30.

Striking Facts: 35. GOD is jealous for the honor of His Sabbaths and will not hold men guiltless who profane them. GOD gave this exemplary punishment as a standing warning against presumptuous disregard of His holy day.

Questions:

1. What are the elements of a “free will” offering?
2. What are the “drink offering” requirements?
3. What requires “a young bull, a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil drink offering half a hin or wine.
4. Is there a difference in offerings for a native or immigrant?
5. What actions are necessary after the first crop after arriving in the “Promised Land”
6. Is there “grace” available for “unintentionally” sinning?

7. What is the punishment for Sabbath breaking?

Special Note: See Verses 37-39, and compare Matthew 9:20, 14:36 and Mark 6:56